I checked with my records and I faxed a discovery package to him on May 15, 2012 for all of the lab numbers he gave me: [REDACTED] I noticed that the date of offense you gave me is 6/19/11, which does not correspond to those numbers. I looked up his name in our database and noticed that there are 2 other submissions that would most likely correspond with that date and they are [REDACTED]. Are those the other lab submissions for this case??? I'll do my best to get that paperwork ready as soon as possible. I've attached my CV to this email. Also, I was not aware that this case was actually on for trial tomorrow (5/31/12). Will I be needed to testify tomorrow, or will this case last a few days? I ask as I had planned on taking tomorrow afternoon off. Thanks.
